

I am against the restriction of a home user's right to record HDTV programs. Recording of programs is a necessity of life for people with busy schedules and we should be able to record in the best format available. This would be like if they simulcast in black and white and color channels but you could only record the black and white. This is an outrage.